At a public meeting held on Monday, November 15, 2010, the Arizona Game and Fish Commission Appointment Recommendation Board interviewed five applicants for the 2011 appointment to the Arizona Game and Fish Commission. Out of those five applicants the Commission Appointment Recommendation Board selected the names of three candidates to be forwarded to Governor Jan Brewer for her review and consideration in making her next 2011 Arizona Game and Fish Commission appointment.

The three candidates are as follows:

The five applicants who were interviewed at Monday's public meeting were selected from an original list of 73 applicants considered by the Board at its previous November 12, 2010 public meeting.
