

Join us for an engaging weekend of study and exploration on Mt. Lemmon

Arizona Predators

A Professional Development Opportunity for Educators

Co-Sponsored by: Arizona Game and Fish Department & Safari Club International Foundation

Who Arizona Educators of all grade levels who are interested in enhancing their curriculum through the study of predators, conservation, and wildlife habitat.

When April 20 – April 22, 2007
Friday: Check-In begins at 5:30 pm with an Evening Program beginning at 7:00 pm.
Saturday: A full day of study with biologists, field explorations, and evening activities.
Sunday: Resource Connections. Wrap up around 11:00 am.

Where Camp Lawton, Mt. Lemmon, Tucson, AZ

Costs $25.00 per participant
Meals: Saturday morning breakfast through Sunday morning breakfast are provided for all participating educators.
Two Lodging Options are available at no additional charge to educators:
• Cabin style room accommodations (up to 8 people in one room)
• Tent Camping on-site

Benefits Each educator will receive hands-on activities, state and local resource information, networking opportunities and more.

Space is limited. To register for this event, complete and mail the form and payment to: Arizona Game and Fish Department, Attn: Sharon – Education Branch, 2221 West Greenway Road, Phoenix, AZ 85023 .

Registration: Arizona Predators Workshop – April 20-22, 2007
(Please type or print clearly)

I have enclosed a check made out to SCI Foundation for _____ ($25/person).

Name _____

Address _____

City _____ State _____ Zip _____

Telephone (____) _____ Email _____

Grade/Age you work with _____ Vegetarian meals? _____ YES _____ NO

Accommodations you prefer: _____ I will be bringing my own tent to camp.
_____ I would like to stay in the cabins. (Space is limited.)
_____ I will pay for a hotel in the vicinity.

(Attach a list of each person, with his/her name and address and phone number and email)