

2013 OUTDOOR EXPO

Youth Day Presentation Schedule

ARIZONA STORYTIME

Award winning author Barbara Gowan will share the rhymes and riddles of Little Arizona, complete with puppets and props. As a bonus, she will discuss writing strategies. Participants will have the opportunity to enter their own Arizona wildlife riddle in a contest. She will also be available at select times to sign copies of her books.

Storytime readings will occur at:

9:30 am
11:45 am

STORYTELLING

Students and faculty from South Mountain Community College's Storytelling Institute will tell stories about animals or related to the theme "Go Play Outside!" These stories are appropriate for all ages from young children to adult. However, slightly more age appropriate stories are being planned based on the following schedule:

10:15 am - High school (and adults)
11:00 am - Grades 6-8
12:30 pm - Grades 3-5
1:15 pm - Grades K-2 (and younger)

LIVE WILDLIFE PRESENTATIONS

These engaging presentations, hosted by knowledgeable Department staff or volunteers. Sit down, relax, and enjoy an exciting discussion about Arizona's native wildlife.

9:00 am - Owls
10:00 am - Mammals
11:00 am - Reptiles
12:00 pm - Kestrels and Eagles
1:00 pm - Animal Adaptations

NEW Impromptu wildlife encounters will occur throughout the day at our specially designed "Wildlife on the Loose!" encounter area.

FIREARMS SAFETY PRESENTATIONS

Presented by Shooter's World, these age-appropriate presentations will focus on firearms safety in the home and other environments. The content is the same but each talk has been geared for specific grade levels.

9:00 am - Elementary audiences
10:00 am - Middle school audiences
11:00 am - High school audiences
12:00 pm - Elementary audiences
1:00 pm - Middle school audiences
