AGFD Teacher Ambassador

Purpose

To recruit at least one teacher or administrator from each district or school in Arizona. This individual would promote AGFD educational programs at their school site or district. They would be the primary connection between AGFD and the schools, and would be the major way in which new products and services would be advertised.

Duties

- To disseminate information to other teachers at the site about AGFD education programs such as workshops, lessons and materials.
- To communicate directly with AGFD education personnel through a variety of methods including phone, email, personal contact, and the Internet.
- To be willing to review, test, and provide development assistance with new products and services before they go "live", and review and provide feedback about existing products and services on a regular basis.
- To host at least one workshop or inservice at the school or district site promoting AGFD education materials.

Benefits

- First notification of new products and services available.
- Discounted registration costs for some AGFD events.
- Ability to participate in at least one workshop/event hosted specifically for ambassadors.
- Access to AGFD materials and resources not traditionally available to everyone.
