Legislative News:

- Today marks the 152nd Day of Arizona's 49th Legislature, 1st Regular Session
- Bills, bills and more bills...both chambers are swiftly moving through great numbers, albeit of selective bills. The Senate floor was convened for several hours on Friday to move through 4 COW calendars. This action following an extremely long week of Committee hearings. The House has adjourned until Monday, but moved through several COW and 3rd read calendars this past week. Legislative staff must certainly be immersed in work for as long as this process remains in motion.
- As of weeks end, there has still been no word on the state of the budget negotiations between the Governor and the Legislature.
- The Department's originally drafted legislation, HB2157, the aquatic invasive species bill, which was considered on a House 3rd read calendar this past week and passed by a vote of 46-9. The bill has been transmitted to the Senate where it currently awaits 1st read/assignment.

POSTED CALENDARS AND COMMITTEE HEARINGS

The Senate for the first time this session has posted committee calendars with policy legislation on the agenda.
