Experience the great outdoors at the FREE Arizona Game and Fish Department 2008 Outdoor Expo!

Bring your family and enjoy loads of hands-on activities, workshops and exhibits about Arizona outdoor recreation. Trolley transportation throughout the world-renowned Ben Avery Shooting Facility will enable you to explore all of the action:

- Opportunities to shoot the latest firearms
- Live animals, including hawks, owls, reptiles and more
- Lots of kids activities, including family fish tank, archery instruction, target shooting
- Educational field courses and trails

- Workshops on wildlife conservation, hunting, fishing, shooting sports
- ATVs and other off-highway vehicles for test driving and demonstrations
- Watercraft safety and boating information
- Specialty shooting disciplines — cowboy action, black powder, rifle and pistol silhouette, trap/skeet/sporting clays, more
- More than 100 exhibitors — sportsmen's organizations, conservation groups, government agencies and commercial vendors
- Scholastic Clay Target Program (SCTP) Commissioners' Cup sporting clays championships
- Refreshments from on-site food vendors
